4 Your right to access information

Most requests for information can be satisfied via an informal request using this form. If copyright protections apply, we can allow you to view the information. Reproduced copies will only be provided when we have the permission of the copyright owner.

If the information you are requesting is of a personal nature, or relates to another business or agency, we may be required to inform and/or consult with those parties before deciding your application.

Formal access requests must be made for information that is restricted due to commercial confidence, legal privilege, security or protection of privacy. If you are unsure whether the information you seek will need a formal request, you may submit an Informal request using this form. We will review the request and advise you if a formal application is needed.

We do not charge an application for informal requests. We may however charge processing fees for search time, photocopying and written responses. If your request is approved and processing fees are to be applied, we will provide you with an estimate before proceeding. Applications are assessed in order of receipt, but are generally finalised within 20 working days. If we cannot provide a response within this time, we will advise you of the anticipated extension time.

Privacy Notice

We are collecting this information to process your request. We may not be able to do so without it. Supplying this information is voluntary. We will store your personal information on our systems or in our offices, where it will be used by our staff and contractors. Other people can request access to it under the Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009. You can ask us to suppress your personal information from a public register and we will consider your request in line with the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998. Our Privacy Management Plan sets out how you can access or correct your personal information. Please visit www.wentworth.nsw.gov.au for a copy of the plan.
